NEWPORT, R. I.

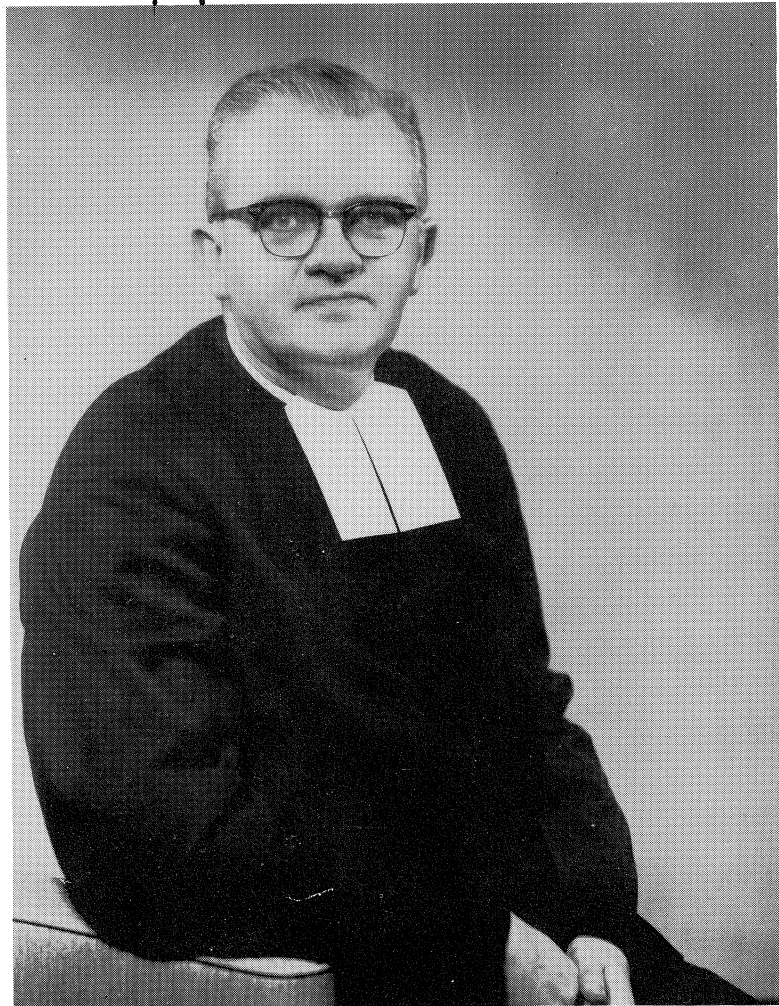

His Holiness Pope John XXIII

Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney, D.D., LL.D.

Dedication

Reverend Brother Chrysostom Patrick, F. S. C.

Dedication

The Senior Class of '60, with a feeling of honor, dedicate this yearbook to their principal, Reverend Brother C. Patrick, F. S. C. They know Brother to be an excellent principal, but most of all they will remember him as a boy's Brother. His intelligence and interest in the religious training, education and personal development of the student has produced confidence in him and confidence in ourselves. His example and guidance has developed in us a preparation for this world and the next.

Reverend William M. Gallagher,
Chaplain

Brother Antony of Mary, F. S. C.
September 30, 1959

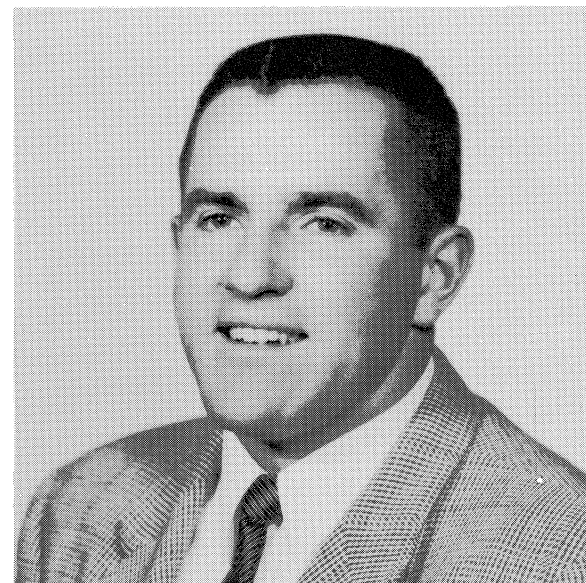

"We have loved him in life; let us not forget him in death."

SCHOOL

ACTIVITIES

A. D. C. Officers along with Brother Dominic are Don Gill, Secretary; James Crawford, President; and Don Braman, Vice President.

Archconfraternity

At De La Salle, the A. D. C. attempts by the students' prayers, to put God first in education and to gain for devoted young men, the grace necessary to become religious teachers. Once a month James Crawford, the president of the Academy group and Brother Dominic, the moderator, conduct the meeting to help inspire vocations.

Mr. Joseph Sullivan of the Legion of Decency and Mr. Jeremiah Lynch, a Catholic councilman and lawyer, impressed upon the student body the necessity for the Catholic to lead a good life in this modern world. Each month, also, during our monthly novena from the 16th to the 25th, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated for the intention of the A. D. C.

ARCHCONFRATERNITY

Father Gallagher gives words of inspiration about Christ's birth.

Paul Bento, Thomas Sullivan and Brother Peter discuss the Council's activities.

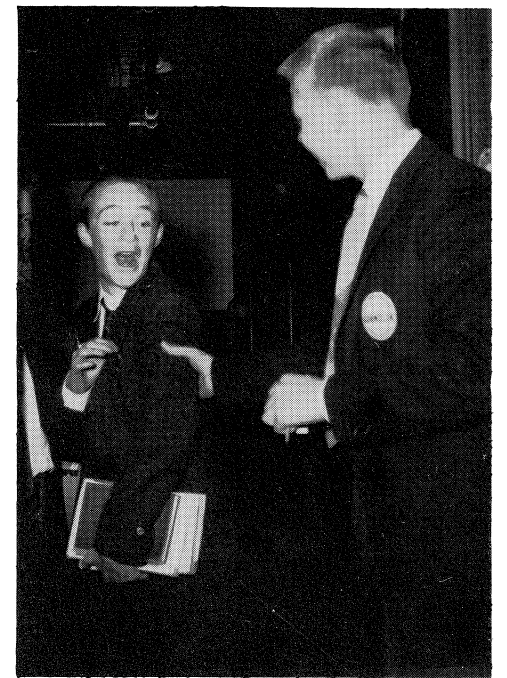

The Student Council invent penalties.

Student Council

Under the faculty aid of Brother Peter the Student Council continued to promote the higher academic, social and moral life of the Academy in '60. Chairman Paul Bento and his committee presented the annual Victory Ball on Thanksgiving day. Under the Council's watchful eyes and with their helpful suggestions from 8:30 in the morning to 2:00 in the afternoon, the school became a better house of learning.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Ian Findlay nabs an offender in the act.

Student Council men on watch are John Plourde and Gerard King.

Associate and active members of the Benilde Club.

BENILDE CLUB

Benilde Club

Under the sponsorship of the Benilde Club this year various projects were organized. Christmas presents were collected for the orphans, and maintenance work, such as painting classrooms, was done. Books were delivered to the children and instruction in Religion given. Games and prayers were taught the youngsters. In addition to this, patients at the Newport hospital were visited and entertained.

Brother Patrick, moderator of the Benilde Club, discusses with Peter Grimes and David Talbot, the club's activities.

Glee Club

This year's Glee Club, under the devoted leadership of Mrs. Fitzgerald, proved again the theory that there is no better sound than a group of male voices. The group made many appearances this year during Christmas time for the student body and Mothers' Club. The audience heard, at their appearances, many of the old favorites such as "Silent Night" and "Oh, Holy Night." More than a few times, this hard-working nucleus of talents filled the gym with melodious sounds as they rehearsed their numbers to perfection.

GLEE CLUB

First Row: Dan Lopes, Harry Lent, Dan Mooney.
Second Row: Robert Edenbach, Tom Gallagher, George Tavares, Peter Toppa, and Thomas Sullivan at the piano.

Public Speaking

Our forensic group again this year showed their prowess. The three finalists in the Academy's "I Speak for Democracy" contest were George Horgan, John LaCroix and Barry Connerton. Connerton won third place in the county-wide contest.

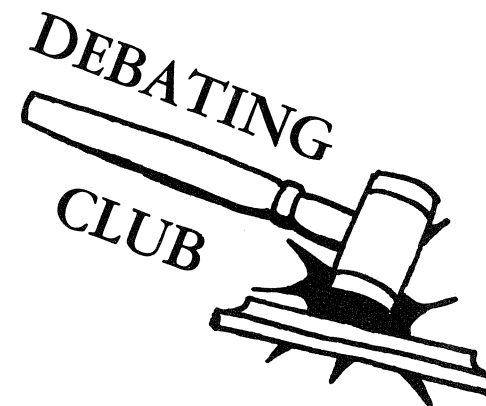

The reputation of De La Salle in the past years at the URI Model Congress was upheld this year by James Crawford, Harry Ridge, Thomas Galvin, Gerry Gleason, James Girr, John Franco, John Drummond, Philip Silvia, Tom Sullivan and Donald Braman. This year Thomas Fennessey of the Junior year will be a representative in the American Legion oratorical contest.

Regina Schartz is chairman while debating moves to the fore as St. Catherine's Joan Gallagher and Kathy Nealon oppose Paul Ferguson and John LaCroix.

Debating Team

The Debating Team showed that the years to come were to be strong ones as, packed with mostly underclassmen talent, the group battled toe to toe with the schools of the Narragansett Interscholastic Debating League. Brother Denis' team displayed their mastery of verbal sword-crossing in the Providence College Debate Tournament as the inspired group made a fine showing.

YEARBOOK STAFF

In our freshmen year the first yearbook was printed at De La Salle and has progressed to the stage where we have a new cover, more pages and more variation than previous books. Under the leadership of Brother B. Patrick, the driving editorship of Tom Galvin, and through the diligent work of the staff, a memento worth keeping has been produced.

Photography Editor Joe Hadley, seated, is surrounded by his staff, Bob Edenbach, Gerry Reynolds, Peter Toppa, Ian Findlay, and John Lyons.

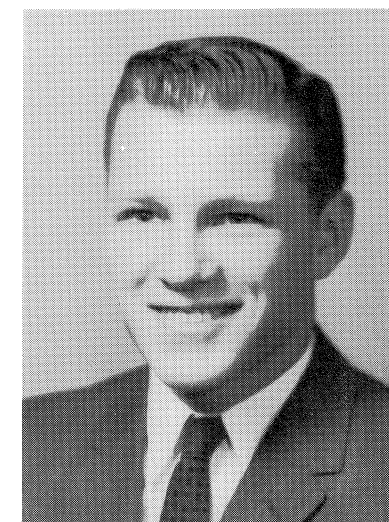

Burning the midnight oil are staffers Jack Girr, Gerard King, and Tom Galvin.

Financial Committee are Back Row: D. Mooney, P. Toppa, M. Finn, J. McCarthy, J. Carroll, J. Towey, G. King, T. Sullivan. Front: J. Serpa, D. Chaves, W. Farrell, R. Edenbach.

Art Editor Steve Pecoraro puts the final touch on the Yearbook.

The happy cast of "Room Service" are First Row: M. Wimsett, Mary Connelly, P. Toppa, Jean O'Hanley, K. Johnson, G. Horgan, G. King. Second Row: M. Finn, T. Finn, J. LaCroix, J. Deacon, D. Concannon, R. Edenbach, T. Sullivan, A. Shea, V. Aubois, R. Brown.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Dramatics Club

The De La Salle Dramatics had its most active year in a decade or more, delighting all with their production of Room Service. New talents were discovered to the school as actors, backstagers and technicians showed brilliance and teamwork in making their play a three-performance success.

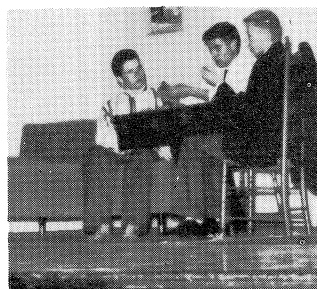

At the URI workshop in November Tom Sullivan and Dan Kelly stole the honors with a two-man Civil War play called Breaking the Bread. And the year ended with a concentrated rendition of Twelve Angry Men for the Rhode Island High School Dramatic Festival.

King-sized salesmanship.

"Oh, for goodness sake . . ."

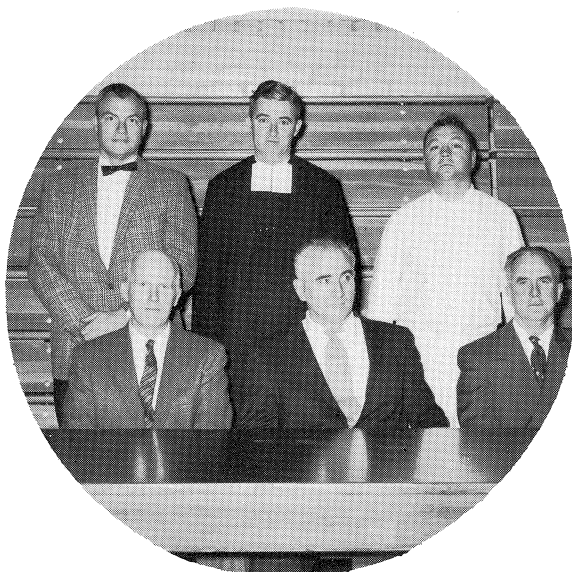

More bluffing.

"But Hilda, I was hungry . . ."

FATHERS' CLUB

Fathers' Club Officers, sitting: Mr. Kelly, Treasurer; Mr. Saunders, Recording Secretary; Mr. Healy, Vice President. Standing: Commander Mullen, President; Brother Bernard, Moderator; Mr. Dufault, Dinner-Dance Chairman.

Mr. Saunders dishes out the spaghetti.

Fathers' Club

The De La Salle Fathers once more gave their time and energy to the school with a Father and Son Night, Spaghetti Dinner, dances and Awards Night, in addition to other activities.

MOTHERS' CLUB

Mrs. King, Treasurer; Mrs. Finn, Vice President; Mrs. McMillan, Corresponding Secretary and Mrs. Carvalho, Recording Secretary at their Christmas party with Brother Raphael, Moderator. (Missing is Mrs. Hadley, President.)

Mrs. Fitzgerald and the Glee Club entertain the mothers.

Mothers' Club

Under the vibrant leadership of Mrs. Thomas Finn, the Mothers continued their generous service to the school, with the Annual Tea, De La Sola, dances and other behind-the-scene help.

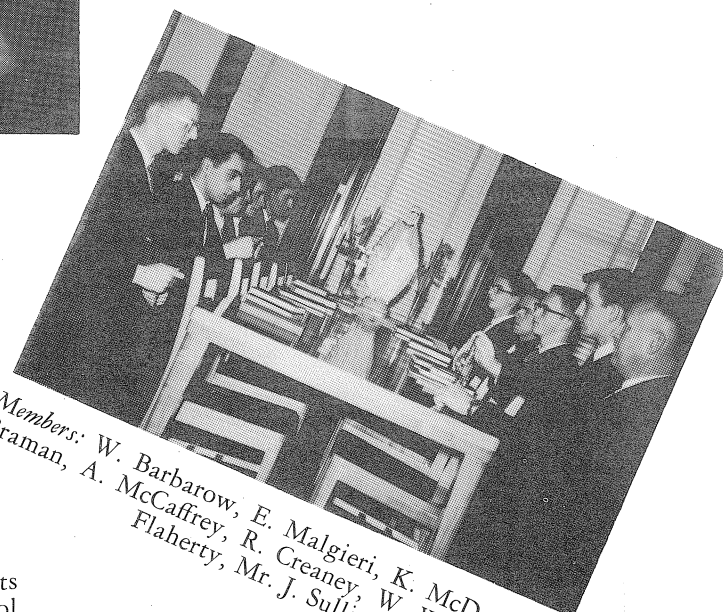

Conducting their weekly meeting of the Legion are Don Braman, Vice President; Mr. Joseph Sullivan, President; Gary Flaherty, Secretary.

LEGION OF MARY

Members: W. Barbarow, E. Malgieri, K. McDonald, D. Braman, A. McCaffrey, R. Creaney, W. Watterson, G. Flaherty, Mr. J. Sullivan.

Legion of Mary

The Legion, formed last year in De La Salle, with its own Junior Praesidium continued to grow in the school this year. Brother Bernard, moderator to the group, and Mr. Joseph Sullivan, President, conducted the weekly meeting of prayer and discussion of activities. The members spend, at some work of mercy, a week of their own free time. Most of the Legion's work is among the underprivileged children and the sick of the local communities. This devoted corps of generous students has developed as an organization unmatched in their devotion to their assigned work.

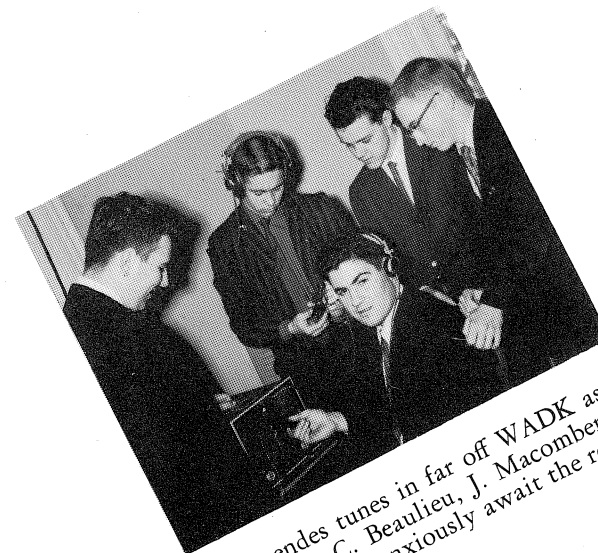

Joining in the rosary — K. McDonald, W. Barbarow, A. McCaffrey, R. Creaney.

Hamming it up . . . three radio hams talk over their projects: B. Kane, L. Caney, R. Medlin.

Radio Club

Under the direction of Brother Donald, the members of the De La Salle Radio Club have concentrated their efforts this year on both theoretical and practical work. They have sought to learn some of the concepts of electronics and to learn the International Morse Code, both of which are necessary for acquisition of an amateur radio operator's license. For practical work, they have concentrated on classification of the electronic equipment available to them and have worked at restoring some of the damaged radio equipment to good running order.

RADIO CLUB

Tuning in Russia on short wave radio is R. Medlin.

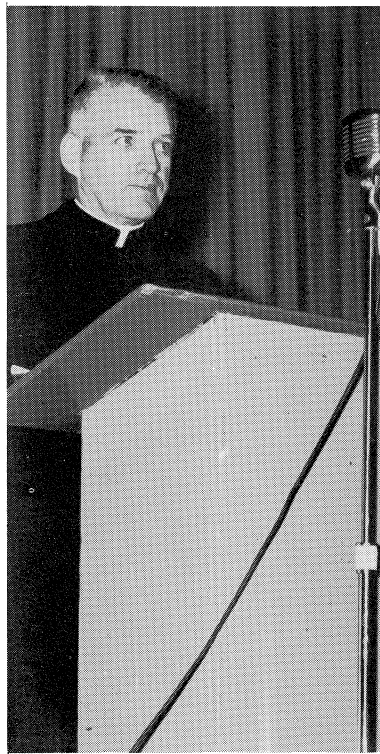

Diagramming the intricate designs of the radio are R. Hutchings, B. Kane, J. Rapoza and L. Caney.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In 1920, the National Honor Society was formed to establish in the high school a higher level of Scholarship, Leadership, Character and Service. From these qualities come the well-rounded student citizen and the man of tomorrow. The De La Salle Chapter inducted their first members four years ago.

Brother Peter, Moderator, and the other members of the De La Salle Chapter, since then, have continued to raise the scholarship of the school by the example set by the members.

Father Halton of Providence College addresses the National Honor Society, Honor students and their parents at Awards Night.

Brother Peter, Father Halton, Brother Patrick and present members J. Hadley, J. Crawford, J. Gleason, and W. Murphy listen as new members R. Stout, J. Mullen, P. Grimes, J. Gavin, H. Ridge, and J. Girr take the pledge.

Brother C. Patrick places the National Honor Society sash on new member James Girr.

Our annual retreat this year was conducted by Father Charles M. Mitchell, a De La Salle alumnus. Father Mitchell immediately gained the confidence and interest of the student body with his inspirational talks and genuine way. Doubtless, the year was blessed with numerous graces gained during this special period of the school year.

De La Salle expects fine things from its golf team this year with three veterans back from the third-place team of 1959. Returning are seniors Jack Girr and John Drummond and junior John "Rock" Murphy. Also expected to help the squad are seniors Pete Maloney and Gerry "Jumper" Gleason and juniors Jack Lahoud and Mike Fitzpatrick. The team once more will be coached by Milton Ryan and moderated by Brother Bernard.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The De La Salle baseball squad looks to a season with a veteran team. A hard hitting club is back with long ball hitters Jim Carroll and Bob Fitch, peppery Dave Chaves and consistently strong Larry Ferriera returning from last years team. Ace hurler Gerry Espanola fills the starting pitching spot he captured last year.

Bob Fitch looks determined to protect that home plate.

Larry Ferriera does a jig on first while Jake Martland streaks for home as a pick-off play fails.
